Dear Sirs

Some years back
 I applied to the Board for permission to copy a certain picture in the Gallery. My request was granted at the time, but I have made use of it.

I now desire to copy the "Air Apparent", and to "Phibite". Two pictures of my own work in the Gallery.

Washington, D. C. Aug. 5/86

Professor L. Knaus,
Dear Sir,

In pursuance of an intimation recently received from Mr E. F. Andrews, my colleague Mr Samuel H. Kauffmann, telegraphed to you on the 2nd instant an offer by this Gallery of 45000 Marks for your "Forester's" painting and an exhibition in Berlin.
We are glad to learn by your despatch this day received that the offer is accepted.

In now hastening to give to this transaction the form and sanction of an official communication on the part of the Board of Trustees of this institution, I beg leave to ~~express~~ assure you that we are exulting ourselves in the prospect of soon having a typical specimen of your masterly work among our treasures of art; ^{on your part} while you ^{will} ~~are~~ ^{are sure} well be pleased, I learn that Mr. Croxson, the magnificent founder of the gallery, which bears his name, has taken a ^{personal} ~~deep~~ interest ^{with us} in the success of our negotiation.

Awaiting the arrival of the letter which you have kindly promised, I ~~deeply~~ ^{have} ~~have~~ in the meantime simply to ask at what date it will probably be convenient for you to forward the painting to Washington.

With great respect, I have the honour to be dear sir,

Your obedient servant
James A. Welles

Dr. James E. Welling
President of the Board of Trustees
Washington D. C.

Dear Sir:

Yesterday I had the pleasure of receiving your honored letter of Aug. 5th, containing the formal ratification of the purchase of my picture "the Forester's Home" for the Corcoran Gallery of Art; and I thank you most heartily for your kind intimation. I do not doubt that this picture will completely answer your expectations and that you will be permanently satisfied with your acquisition. I have perhaps never painted a picture more carefully and conscientiously finished; and the subject interested me so much that I painted it expressly for the Jubilee Exhibition in Berlin. For the rest I leave the picture to speak for itself. I have been especially pleased to hear that Mr. Gorcoran has taken a personal interest in the acquisition; and I feel honored to know myself represented in the Gorcoran Gallery with an important work and under such flattering circumstances.

The Berlin Exhibition will be closed on the 15th of October, so that my picture can only arrive in Washington in the course of November. Perhaps you will have the kindness to let me know your wishes with respect to the expedition of the picture.

I beg to subscribe myself, with great respect,

Your obedient servant,

Ludwig Knaut

Professor Ludwig Knaus,

to. to. to.

Dear Sir,

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your obliging note under date of the 26th instants. We are entirely satisfied that we have in the Professor's Home a most valuable addition to our Gallery, and we wait with interest for the day when it shall be hanging in our walls.

As to the expedition of the picture, I beg leave to say that it will be esteemed by us as a great favor if, when the Exhibition closes at Berlin on the 15th proximo, you shall kindly procure that the painting be properly boxed for transportation.

It should also be insured, against marine risks, for its full value, (fifty thousand marks, in such Insurance Company as you may select.

On receiving from you the bill of lading, accompanied with the policy of insurance drawn in favor of this Gallery, we will at once remit to you a draft covering the price of the picture and all the additional incidental expenses which you may report to us as having been incurred in giving safe despatch to the painting.

We are sorry to impose on you so much trouble, and if there is any way in which the trouble can be mitigated, we shall be most happy to meet your wishes or receiving from you any suggestion in the premises!

With great respect, I am, Dear Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

President James G. Welling.

Dear Sir,

After having yesterday posted my letter to you, I today received the policy of insurance, which I have the honor to send you. The other papers, the bill of lading as well as the papers of legalisation on the part of the American Consulate in Berlin, will be forwarded to you by the dispatcher Rüppel and Loren in Bremen, who is charged with the expedition of the picture. I hope that the affair is now in the best order and that the picture will reach you unhurt.

With great respect, I have the honor to be, dear Sir,

Your obedient servant

Ludwig Knans.

Berlin, November 13th.

Resident C. Welling.

Dear Sir,

The Berlin Exhibition having been prolonged till the end of October, I have not been able, till a week ago to despatch to Washington my picture, "The Forester's Home" which you have acquired for the Corcoran Gallery.

Mr. Schulte, a dealer in works of art, has taken on himself the expedition of the picture, after I had myself superintended the packing. You had asked me in your letter from the 18th of Sept. to have the picture insured, without however making any more precise statement. To insure the picture to its full value of 50,000 Mks, against total loss, costs 250 Mks, while the insurance against partial damage of any kind costs double the sum. The latter kind of insurance appeared to me more important; I therefore had the picture insured for 500 Mks. Should this not have been your intention, I am ready to bear half of the insurance sum.

May excuse that this letter will probably come to you later than the picture; I wished to send to you the policy of insurance and other papers at the same time; however they have not been forwarded to me as yet. I hope that my picture will safely arrive in Washington, and will satisfy the wishes you entertained on purchasing it. May I request you to place my picture in very good light, as the execution requires a great deal of light, and not to have it varnished too soon.

You can imagine, honoured Sir, that I am highly flattered to be represented by an important work in so renowned a collection as the Corcoran Gallery, and that I am eagerly looking forward to your answer. As soon as I shall be in possession of the papers, they shall instantly be sent to you.

I remain, dear Sir, with great respect
your most obedient servant

Rudwig Knaut.

Best all day -

Among recent artistic events is the purchase for the Corcoran Gallery of the large Knaus now on exhibition in Berlin entitled "The Forester's Home." The work of this master is so popular in America that this important acquisition will be hailed with delight.
